Parentesi

Designer: Fabrice Berrux

Parentesi is a coat stand resembling a niche, able to join gather, organise and conceal clothes and items in a practical and original way. With its architectural nature, it defines the space, keeping it neat and tidy and adding character thanks to its unprecedented design. Parentesi stands out for its simple yet uncommon style suited to different settings, from the entrance hall, to the bedroom, from the office to the most refined contract spaces. The frame is padded and upholstered in fabric; the top and tubular hanger rail are in black eco-leather. The wide range of choice of the fabric allows Parentesi to assume a more classic or bold look, while keeping its functionality and timeless elegance unaltered.
